STATE OF RHODE ISLAND
AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
HEALTH SERVICES REGULATIONS

vs.

CHERYL PERKINS, N.A. (CO5-323)

ORDER

Pursuant to Rhode Island General Laws (2001 Reenactment) Section 23-17.9-8 and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, the Rhode Island Department of Health (hereinafter "Department"), after review and consultation with the Advisory Board for Nursing Assistants, has investigated a complaint charging Cheryl Perkins (NA12219) (hereinafter "Respondent") with a violation of Section 23-17.9-8 of the General Laws.

After consideration by the Department, the following constitutes the Finds of Fact with respect to the professional performance of the Respondent:

1. Respondent is a Nursing Assistant licensed to practice in the State of Rhode Island.

2. That at all pertinent times, Respondent was employed by Elmhurst Extended Care, Providence, Rhode Island.

3. That on or about 4 August 2003 Respondent executed a Consent Order with the Department. Pursuant to the terms of said Consent Order, Respondent's Nursing Assistant certification was placed on probation for a period of not less than one (1) year. On 12 August 2005 Respondent was found to not be incompliance with said Consent Order.

4. That the conduct described in paragraph four (4) herein constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to Section 23-17.9-8 of the Rhode Island General Laws and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

Based on the foregoing, the Rhode Island Department of Health hereby enters the following:

1. The nursing assistant license issued to the Respondent is hereby put on probation for a period of six (6) months commencing on 14 November 2005.

2. That the probationary period will be in effect upon employment of the Respondent as a nursing assistant in a licensed health care facility, and will abate for any period when the Respondent is not employed as a nursing assistant.

3. Respondent will notify the Department of any lapse in employment and the probation will be extended until six (6) months of employment as a nursing assistant is completed.

4. Respondent will require supervision. This stipulation will be documented and reported to the Department by a supervising registered nurse.

5. That during the period of probation, the Respondent's employer(s) shall submit quarterly reports to the Board relating to the Respondent's conduct and performance that it shall be the responsibility of Respondent to have the employer(s) submit said reports. Reports will be due on 31 January and 31 April 2006.

6. That during the period of probation, should Respondent change employment, Respondent shall notify the Board forthwith of said changes including the name and address of the new employer(s), date Respondent commences said employment and the reason for the change in employment.

7. That during the period of probation, Respondent will be prohibited from working in a community based setting (i.e., home nursing care provider) or any setting in which Respondent will be providing care without supervision.

8. That should Respondent comply with the laws and regulations governing the practice of nursing assistants and comply with the requirements of this Order, Respondent may apply to the Department for relief from probation.

9. That should Respondent fail to comply with the terms of this Order, Respondent's registration as a nursing assistant will be subject to suspension or other appropriate disciplinary action.

10. That this Order shall be in full force and effect pending further Order of the Department.

Ordered on this 2 day of November 2005

Charles Alexandre

Charles Alexandre
Chief, Health Professions Regulation