CONSENT ORDER

This matter is before the Board of Examiners in Podiatry (hereinafter "Board") upon request submitted by Angela Fedorcuk (hereinafter "Respondent"), that her podiatry license, having been surrendered, be reinstated. That on 9 December 2007 Respondent entered into a consent order with the Board wherein Respondent's license to practice podiatry was surrendered for unprofessional conduct in that Respondent did fail to maintain proper records and inventory for certain medications to wit, Hydrocodone (2400 dosage units), from February 15, 2005 through and including June 19, 2007; that Respondent maintained at her office certain medications which were expired and/or misbranded; and Respondent did not maintain proper records of administration for a certain controlled substance, to wit, Diazepam.

After consideration by the Board, it was agreed by an between the parties:

1. Respondent is a licensed podiatrist and able to conduct business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Rhode Island
2. Respondent admits to the jurisdiction of the Department and hereby agrees to remain under the jurisdiction of the Department.
3. Respondent has read this Consent Order and understands that it is a proposal of the Department and is subject to final approval by the Department. This Consent Order and the contents thereof are not binding on Respondent until final approval by the Department.

4. Respondent hereby acknowledges and waives:
  - a) The right to appear personally or by counsel or both before the Department;
  - b) The right to produce witnesses and evidence in her behalf at a hearing;
  - c) The right to cross-examine witnesses;
  - d) The right to have subpoenas issued by the Department;
  - e) The right to further procedural steps except for those specifically contained herein;
  - f) Any and all rights of appeal of this Consent Order.;
5. This Consent Order shall become part of the public record of this proceeding once it is accepted by all parties and Respondent's license shall reflect that the status is probationary.
6. Acceptance by the Respondent and approval by the Department of this Consent Order constitutes an admission of the facts contained herein.
7. Failure to comply with the Consent Order, once signed and accepted, shall subject the Respondent to further disciplinary action.
8. That the Respondent's license to practice as a podiatrist is reinstated and that Respondent shall serve at least a five (5) year period of probation subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this order.
9. That said probationary period shall commence upon the date of the execution of this Consent Order by all the parties and will abate for the duration of any period in which Respondent ceases to be employed as a podiatrist.

10. That, during the period of probation, Respondent shall submit to the Board quarterly reports from the Rhode Island Medical Society Physicians Health Committee attesting to her compliance with all elements of her contract with said committee.
11. That should Respondent comply with the laws and regulations governing the practice of podiatry during the period of probation and comply with the requirements of this Consent Order, she may apply to the Board for an unrestricted license to practice as a podiatrist.
12. That should Respondent fail to comply with the laws and regulations governing the practice of podiatry and/or fail to comply with the terms of this Order, her license as a podiatrist shall be subject to suspension or other appropriate disciplinary action.
13. This consent Order constitutes a final order of the Department of Health pursuant to RI General Laws § 42-35-12. Pursuant to RI General Laws § 42-35-15, a final order may be appealed to the Superior Court sitting in and for the County of Providence within thirty (30) days of the mailing date of this decision. Such appeal, if taken, must be completed by filing a petition for review in Superior Court. The filing of the complaint does not itself satisfy enforcement of this order. The agency may grant, or the reviewing court may order, a stay under the appropriate terms. By signing this Consent Order, Respondent has waived the appellate rights stated herein.
