vs.

Shana L. Freeman

CONSENT AGREEMENT

This matter came before the RI Department of Health, Office of Health Professions Regulation, (hereinafter "Department"), based upon review of (hereinafter Respondent) application for licensure as a esthetician in the State of Rhode Island. In reviewing the application, it was determined that the Respondent had a criminal record as confirmed by the Bureau of Criminal Investigations background check (see attached). In light of the Respondent's past criminal history, the Respondent will be issued a license with probationary status. It is agreed between the parties and it was agreed as follows:

1. That the Respondent shall be issued a six months probationary license;
2. That said probationary period shall be of six months duration and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Consent Agreement
3. That said probationary period shall commence upon the date the Respondent enters into this agreement by signing same and will abate for the duration of any period in which Respondent ceases to operate as a esthetician in the State of Rhode Island.
4. That during the period of probation should Respondent fail to comply with the provisions of Chapter 5-10 and/or the Rules & Regulations adopted thereunder, or any of the terms of this Consent Agreement, the Department shall initiate appropriate action with respect to Respondent's licensure status.
5. That at the expiration of the six (6) months period of probation, Respondent may apply to the Department for an unrestricted license as a Hairdresser.

This Consent Order constitutes a final order of the Department of Health pursuant to RI General Laws § 42-35-12. Pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-34-15, a final order may be appealed to the Superior Court sitting in and for the County of Providence within thirty (30) days of the mailing date of this decision. Such appeal, if taken, must be completed by filing a petition for review in Superior Court. The filing of the complaint does not itself stay enforcement of this order. The agency may grant, or the reviewing court may order, a stay upon the appropriate terms. By signing this Consent Order, Respondent has waived the appellate rights stated herein.
