vs.

DANIELLE ROBILLARD, NA (CO5-156)

ORDER

Pursuant to R.I.G.L. (2001 Reenactment) Section 23-17.9-8 and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, the Rhode Island Department of Health (hereinafter "Department"), after review and consultation with the Advisory Board for Nursing Assistants, has investigated a complaint charging Danielle Robillard (NA33752) (hereinafter "Respondent") with a violation of Section 23-17.9-8 of the General Laws.

After consideration by the Department, the following constitutes the Findings of Fact with respect to the professional performance of the Respondent:

1. Respondent is a Nursing Assistant licensed to practice in the State of Rhode Island.
2. That at all pertinent times, Respondent was employed as a Nursing Assistant.
3. That on or about 24 and 26 February 2005, Respondent stole approximately $320.00 (funds were stolen on two (2) separate dates) from a home care client.
4. That the conduct described in paragraph three (3) herein constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to Section 23-17.9-8 (3) and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

Based on the foregoing, the Rhode Island Department of Health hereby enters the following:

1. Nursing Assistant license issued to the Respondent is hereby put on probation for a period of one (1) year commencing upon 11 May 2006.
2. That the probationary period will be in effect upon employment of the Respondent as a Nursing Assistant in a licensed health care facility, and will abate for any period when the Respondent is not employed as a Nursing Assistant.
3. Respondent will notify the Department of any lapse in employment and the probation will be extended until one (1) year of employment as a Nursing Assistant is completed.
4. That Respondent shall enter into and continue to adhere to conditions of a contract with a peer assistance program or other health care professional counseling and/or treatment program or provide evidence of completion.

5. That during the period of probation, Respondent shall continue counseling and/or treatment programs as their counselor deems appropriate or provide evidence of completion Respondent waives confidentiality of the treatment and counseling and will direct the health care professional rendering treatment to release any reports to the Board, including but not limited to, monthly counseling reports, monthly urine and drug screening programs. Respondent will provide counselor with a copy of this Order.
6. Respondent will require supervision. This stipulation will be documented and reported to the Department by a supervising Registered Nurse.
7. That, during, the period of probation, the Respondent's employer shall submit quarterly reports to the Board relating to the Respondent's conduct and performance; that it shall be the responsibility of Respondent to have the employer(s) submit said reports.
8. That during the period of probation, should Respondent change employment, Respondent shall notify the Board forthwith of said changes including the name and address of the new employer(s), date Respondent commences said employment and the reason for the change in employment.
9. That during the period of probation, Respondent will be prohibited from working in a community based setting (i.e. an assisted living facility, a home nursing care provider agency or any setting in which Respondent will be providing care without supervision).
10. That should Respondent comply with the laws and regulations governing the practice of Nursing Assistant and comply with the requirements of this Order, Respondent may apply to the Department for relief from probation.
11. That should Respondent fail to comply with the terms of this Order, Respondent's Registration as a Nursing Assistant will be subject to suspension or other appropriate disciplinary action.
12. That should Respondent fail to comply with the terms of this Order, Respondent shall be subject to further disciplinary sanctions.
13. That this Order shall remain in full force and effect pending further Order by the Rhode Island Department of Health.
