Office of Health Professions Regulation

vs.

Julie Mathers

ORDER

Pursuant to R.I.G.L. (2001 Reenactment) Section 23-17.9-8 and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, the Rhode Island Department of Health (hereinafter "Department"), after review and consultation with the Advisory Board for Nursing Assistants, has investigated complaint charging Julie Mathers, NA (hereinafter "Respondent") with a violation of Section 23-17.9-8 of the General Laws.

After consideration by the Department, the following constitutes the Findings of Fact with respect to the professional performance of the Respondent:

1. Respondent is a Nursing Assistant licensed to practice in the State of Rhode Island.
2. That all pertinent times, Respondent was employed as a Nursing Assistant.
3. On or about 20 May 2004, Respondent entered into an Order with the Department wherein Respondent's nursing assistant license was placed on a one (1) year period of probationary status for being involved in criminal activity in that on or about January 2003, Respondent filed an application for licensure and it was determined that Respondent had been involved in the following criminal activity – one (1) count of shoplifting in May 2003 and one (1) count of vandalism in November 2002 for which she pled nolo contendere to both counts. That on or about 28 July 2005, Respondent was found not to be in compliance with said Order. That Respondent is not in compliance with said Order in that the required reports have not been submitted.
4. That pursuant to paragraphs 4 and 6 of the Order, Respondent was required to document twelve (12) hours of in-service programs on professionalism and to have their supervising Registered Nurse forward performance evaluation(s) to the Department of Health. The performance evaluation(s) from each health facility employer must recommend continued employment and satisfactory performance.
5. That the conduct described in paragraph three (3) herein constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to Section 23-17.9-8 and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

Based on the foregoing, the Rhode Island Department of Health hereby enters the following:

1. Nursing Assistant license issued to the Respondent is hereby suspended for a period of not less than one (1) year commencing upon the 2 September 2005.
2. At the time Respondent seeks reinstatement of the Nursing Assistant license, Respondent shall submit documentation to the Board evidencing that Respondent is capable and competent to engage in the practice of Nursing Assistant. In addition, Respondent must meet all education requirements for licensure in effect at the time Respondent applies for licensure.
3. That should Respondent fail to comply with the terms of this Order, Respondent shall be subject to further disciplinary sanctions.
4. That this Order shall remain in full force and effect pending further Order by the Rhode Island Department of Health.

Ordered this 24 day of August 2005
