DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
HEALTH SERVICES REGULATION

vs.

SAMUEL ADEWUMI, N.A.

A.H. FILE NO. (HSR) 2006-11

ORDER

This matter came on for hearing before an Administrative Hearing Officer of the Department of Health and, prior to testimony concluding, the Hearing Officer ordered the following:

1. The Respondent did treat Patient A while employed at South Kingstown Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, West Kingstown, RI in a rough manner.
2. Such conduct constitutes unprofessional conduct as defined in § 23-17.9-8 of the R.I. Gen. Laws.
3. Respondent shall be placed on a period of two (2) years probation during which time his employer shall submit quarterly reports as to the Respondent's job performance.
4. That, during the period of probation, Respondent must attend twelve (12) hours of in-service programs in each year to include the topic(s) of patient's rights and abuse. It shall be the responsibility of the Respondent to have the employer(s) submit quarterly reports of the number of hours of in-service Respondent has attended for that previous quarter, until such time that the entire twelve (12) hours of in-service has been completed.

5. Respondent will require supervision. This stipulation will be documented and reported to the Department by a supervising Registered Nurse.
6. That, during the period of probation, the Respondent's employer shall submit quarterly reports to the Board relating to the Respondent's conduct and performance; that it shall be the responsibility of Respondent to have the employer(s) submit said reports.
7. That during the period of probation should Respondent change employment, Respondent shall notify the Board forthwith of said changes including the name and address of the new employer(s), date Respondent commences said employment, and the reason for the change in employment.
8. That during the period of probation, Respondent will be prohibited from working in a community-based setting (i.e. an assisted living facility, a home nursing care provider agency or any setting in which Respondent will be providing care without supervision).
9. Any further misconduct by the Respondent shall subject him to further discipline.

Ordered this 8th day of February 2007.
