Office of Health Professions Regulation

vs.

Sarah Heaton

ORDER

Pursuant to R.I.G.L. (2001 Reenactment) Section 23-17.9-8 and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, the Rhode Island Department of Health (hereinafter "Department"), after review and consultation with the Advisory Board for Nursing Assistants, has investigated complaint charging Sarah Heaton, NA (hereinafter "Respondent") with a violation of Section 23-17.9-8 of the General Laws.

After consideration by the Department, the following constitutes the Findings of Fact with respect to the professional performance of the Respondent:

1. Respondent is a Nursing Assistant licensed to practice in the State of Rhode Island.
2. On or about 23 May 2003, Respondent entered into an Consent Order with the Department wherein Respondent's nursing assistant license was placed on probation for a period of not less than one (1) year for unprofessional conduct in that on or about 30 August 2002, Respondent was working without a current license. That on or about 18 June 2004, Respondent was found not to be in compliance with said Order. That Respondent is not in compliance with said Order in that the required reports have not been submitted.
3. That pursuant to paragraph 11 of the Consent Order, Respondent was responsible for having their supervising Registered Nurse forward quarterly performance evaluations to the Department of Health. The performance evaluations from each health facility employer must recommend continued employment and satisfactory performance.
4. That the conduct described in paragraph three (3) herein constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to Section 23-17.9-8 and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

Based on the foregoing, the Rhode Island Department of Health hereby enters the following:

1. Nursing Assistant license issued to the Respondent is hereby suspended for a period of not less than five (5) years commencing upon the 30 June 2005.

2. At the time Respondent seeks reinstatement of the Nursing Assistant license, Respondent shall submit documentation to the Board evidencing that Respondent is capable and competent to engage in the practice of Nursing Assistant. In addition, Respondent must meet all education requirements for licensure in effect at the time Respondent applies for licensure.
3. That should Respondent fail to comply with the terms of this Order, Respondent shall be subject to further disciplinary sanctions.
4. That this Order shall remain in full force and effect pending further Order by the Rhode Island Department of Health.

Ordered this 22 day of June 2005
